Wāhi Tūpuna Grants Hurungaterangi

Our Hurungaterangi whānau received a grant in June to support the Waitawa Stream Restoration project.

Waitawa, along with Puarenga and Waipākau streams have suffered due to proximity to industrial businesses and practices. The hope is to restore and rebalance our connection to our awa and surrounding whenua, so that it may once again be a kāpata kai.

Tēnā koutou e te iwi! Our Waikite Pig Hunting Club is on a mission to give back as environmental kaitiaki, working to enhance the biodiversity within our Ngāti Whakaue native forests and the surrounding Department of Conservation blocks.

DOC has a responsibility to work in partnership with iwi to ensure our interests are protected and/or realised as in relation to our Ngāti Whakauetanga.

The monitoring of our ngahere at selected sites will provide annual data to inform our Ngāti Whakaue decision makers. This data will help assess the health and vitality of our native forest remnants under our care, as well as offer a comparison with DOC lands where we also have iwi interests. This data will be ours and the ongoing nature of monitoring over time will give us our own data to use to lobby for support to protect and enhance our natural resources.

Our ngahere is our most underestimated resource. It is simply a taonga, containing massive opportunities in scientific research that could cure diseases, create employment, enrich our cultural renaissance as an iwi, and reengage our people with an important part of our whakapapa.

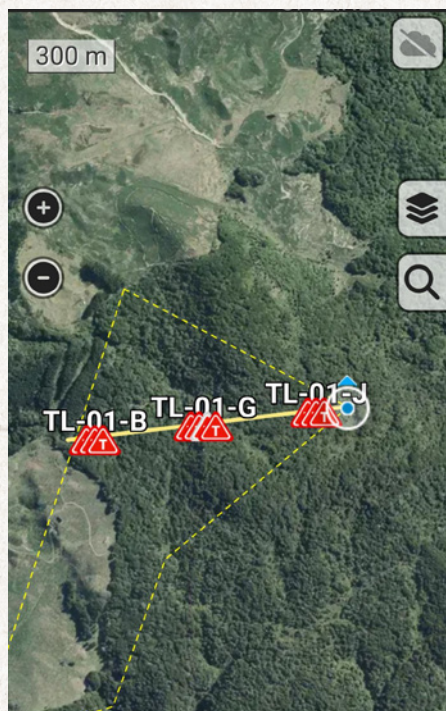

Transect lines across our rohe will collect both pest animal presence or absence information, as well as vegetation plots. A host of other helpful environmental measures will give us a snapshot of the health of our ngahere annually, that we can compare with data collections in future years. I have walked most of these sites and two areas in particular are close to environmental collapse; our maunga Ngongotahā, and all the bush along the Whakapoungakau range, including at Pukepoto via the NWTL Wharenui Farm.

This project is a starting point for us to reclaim our role as kaitiaki of our ngahere. I hope that our iwi and particularly our young people have the opportunity to reconnect with the taonga that is our ngahere, Te Wao Tapu nui a Tāne!

We currently have one line close to completion up at Pukepoto on the Whakapoungakau range. Our goal is to have the remaining lines installed by the end of summer. Monitoring data will be collected annually from October to February.

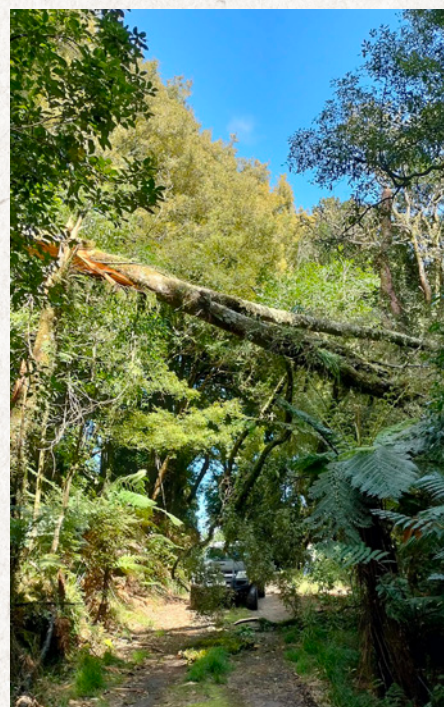

If you are interested or want to get involved, please contact Charles Te Kowhai 027 206 4650

Tēnā tātou Ngāti Whakaue! Maraeroa Mahinga Kai is a whānau and hapū initiative aimed at encouraging Ngāti Whakaue to:

1. Engage with each other, our whakapapa, traditional food practices and our pā
2. Reconnect with our whenua, awa, roto, ngāwhā, indigenous taonga species, natural environment and natural kai sources
3. Reclaim our food security and sovereignty

The māra sits at the mouth of the Uruhina stream on the shores of Te Rotorua-nui-ā-Kahumatamomoe in Ōhinemutu pā.

This wāhi tūpuna is where our Ōhinemutu whānau and wider Ngāti Whakaue hapū and iwi have gathered for generations to karakia, perform sacred rituals, swim in our tūpuna awa, collect kai and cultural resources, connect with our Atua, natural environment and each other.

The late Moana Kereopa, kaitiaki of the land for over sixty years, decreed that the block was never to be built on, but instead should be used as a gathering place for the families of Ngāti Pūkākī who whakapapa to the land. The main coordinators of Maraeroa Mahinga Kai are Cushla Paice, Lani Kereopa, Bernie Hornfeck, Pirihiira Whata, Taumauri Nopera and Manawa Baker.

As hunga tiaki, we understand that the restoration of our waterways, lands and protection of our indigenous taonga species cannot occur without our active reconnection and engagement with our natural environment and each other.

We welcome all visitors to our wāhi tūpuna to swim, fish, garden, join in environmental clean ups and replanting; or just to spend quiet time in the pā reconnecting with Te Uruhina, Te Rotorua-nui-ā-Kahumatamomoe and enjoying our resident taonga species including pūkeko, karoro and kōtuku ngutupapa.

Maraeroa Mahinga Kai is currently home to 26 seasonal vegetable garden boxes; a wild food garden, 16 fruit trees, a mushroom bed, kamokamo and pumpkin house, life-size chicken aviary, community composting bins and a children’s play area.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to Ngāti Whakaue Assets Trust and the generosity of our iwi for the Ngāti Whakaue Wāhi Tūpuna grant of $7,500 that we are extremely grateful recipients of.

This grant will fund upgrades and beautification efforts for our wāhi tūpuna.

We will share pics with the iwi as soon as our volunteers have completed the upgrades. Until then, we hope to see you in the māra!

Remandate

Some whānau members were dissatisfied with the TKN’s remandate strategy and timing of the hui. TKN acknowledges that decisions made did not suit everyone but felt that 12 months since the closing of submissions to the Remandate strategy (July 2023) was delaying progress, hence the organising of the hui.

TKN completed the remandate hui late July 2024 with hui held in:

Auckland	Monday	22 July 2024
Hamilton	Tuesday	23 July 2024
Maketū	Wednesday	25 July 2024
Rotorua	Saturday	27 July 2024

The hui were well attended and results of the vote are shown in this table:

Auckland Monday 22 July 2024	Registrations	Votes for	Votes against	Did not vote	% of votes
VOTING	55	22	19	14	53.7%
Hamilton Tuesday 23 July 2024	Registrations	Votes for	Votes against	Did not Vote or voted in AK	% of votes
VOTING	22	9	1	10	90%
Maketū 25 July 2024	Registrations	Votes for	Votes against	Did not Vote or voted in AK or HN	% of votes
VOTING	141	54	47	40	53.5%
Rotorua 27 July 2024	Registrations	Votes for	Votes against	Did not Vote	% of votes
VOTING	133	95	8	30	92.2%
Rotorua 27 July 2024 Live Stream	Viewers	Votes for	Votes against	Did not Vote	% of votes
	At one stage up to 283 online viewers, but not for duration of hui	59	14	24	80.8%

Draft Deed of Mandate

The next step involved completing the draft Deed of Mandate, including the process followed for the remandate hui. This was submitted to Te Arawhiti, who then made it available on their website, inviting submissions on the representative structure, as well as the hui and voting process. Submission closed 22 September 2024.

SUBMISSION RESPONSES

65 submissions in total
50 submissions via Citizen Space
15 submissions via email
52 support and 13 oppose

Those who oppose list concerns such as:

- Unfair representation on TKN board between ki Tai and ki Uta (creates bias towards Rotorua-based Whakaue)
- TKN trying to block relatives of claimants from succeeding claims
- TKN has failed to engage with

Maketū claimants and Te Rōpū Whakahaere

- TKN have failed to communicate plans/progress effectively with Maketū community
- Mandate hui process was divisive and disruptive, not fair and transparent
- TKN have not addressed concerns of Maketū community/claimants
- TKN provided misleading information (e.g. board member voting)
- The independent facilitator at the hui was biased

20 submissions cite the process as being ‘fair and transparent’. Others cited a large turnout compared to other hui-ā-iwi, and that Whakaue is one iwi with all having whakapapa to the six koromātua.

Three submissions cite the Maketū opposition as being a relatively minor proportion of the overall iwi, despite an inflated showing at the voting hui. One Maketū resident cites Te Rōpū Whakahaere as not representing the Maketū community, not consulting her family for support of TRW’s position, and of spreading misinformation.

There were also requests by claimants for updates to hapū and AOI included in the Deed.

Preparing for Negotiations

While TKN waits the outcome of the Crown process for a fresh mandate, from the Minister for Treaty of Waitangi settlement negotiations, our priority is to meet and confirm with claimants their expectations are what they shared in 2012 and again in 2019/20.

TKN’s overarching principle approach to settlement negotiations is inclusivity.

Te Whata

Ben Manley

Ngāti Whakaue, Ngāti Maniapoto

Te Whata Heritage,
Research and Archives
Manager

Ben Manley is a researcher, consultant, and local historian. After over 16 years as a public servant, Ben joined Te Taumata as the Te Whata Manager. His role draws and expands upon a moemoeā expressed by our people during the founding years of Te Taumata, focusing on in preserving our heritage, our mātauranga, for future generations.

Equally important is sharing mātauranga correctly to inform and create new knowledge. While still being established, Te Whata will provide Te Taumata with a corporate archive, repository, and research resource. It also supports Pātaka Kōrero o Ngāti Whakaue, a personal learning development resource. Te Whata will run heritage programs, including a Māori Land Research Workshop and a biography and autobiography writing workshop by the end of 2024.

Greg was raised at Ōhinemutu and nurtured by the papakāinga. He is married to Ana Morrison and they have two sons Taokahu and Reone.

Greg manages the functions of our ECE Centre Te Puna Manawa o Whakaue, our Kura Kōkiri (our Alternative Education programme for Years 9- 11), our Ahurea Māori Team (Wānanga Paepae, Wānanga Rangatahi, Kura Reo, Reo Koeke and Te Ahu o Te Reo) and our Whānau Engagement programme (re-engaging our rangatahi back into school).

Greg is a qualified teacher and has taught overseas and locally (Glenholme School, Te Kura o Te Koutu) and at Tertiary Level (Waiariki Polytechnic).

Housing

Jordon Robertson

Te Rarawa, Tainui, Kāi Tahu

Housing Manager

Jordon Robertson, who is married into Ngāti Whakaue and Tūhourangi, is deeply committed to contributing to te iwi Māori.

As the Housing Manager of Te Taumata o Ngāti Whakaue, he leads his team with dedication, striving to fulfill the moemoeā of advocating for and supporting the housing needs of our whānau.

We lead Te Pokapū, the housing hub in Rotorua, working with MHUD, MSD, Te Whatu Ora, and local providers to enhance emergency housing solutions. As the contract holders of Housing First Rotorua, we have successfully housed 161 chronically homeless whānau. We offer a Ngāti Whakaue-centric financial literacy program, co-designed with our koeke, to help manage pūtea wellness.

Our new programs will focus on developing papakāinga on whenua Māori and guiding whānau towards home ownership.

Whakaue Whakanuia

Over the past nine weeks of tutoring and facilitating Whakaue Whakanuia practices, it has been a humbling journey for us as a team, Jessie Heke, Queenisha Rangitangia Davis-Jones, Makea Iti-White, and our amazing guitarists Hiria Ngatai and Rueben Edwards.

Having previously led Ngahau Jamz each month, we had a sense of who would participate and a rough idea of what to expect. However, the weekly preparation, meetings, and organisation reinforced our commitment to ensuring the best possible experience for our whānau.

Ahakoā, me ngā aupiki me ngā auheke, ko te kaupapa te pūtake i waenga i a mātou hapū. We are incredibly proud and privileged to have served our iwi, especially those whānau who committed wholeheartedly, stepping out of their comfort zones. For many, it was their first time performing kapa haka and taking the stage, and their efforts will be remembered. These actions set them up to be honored as great tūpuna one day.

We are also grateful for the unwavering support from our trailblazing koeke. A special thanks and acknowledgment to Uncle Clark Pirika, Pāpā Matthew Heke, Koro Paraone Pirika, Auntie Sylvia Tahuriorangi, Auntie Honor, and our cherished Kuikui, Nanny Minnie and Nanny Wharangī. Through everything, they continued to show up for us.

A standout highlight for us has been witnessing the tamariki reconnect with their marae, thriving and living out their best pā kid lives! Throughout these practices, we made sure to take full advantage of the time we had with whānau who travelled from near and far. We wanted to create an environment where everyone could come together and enjoy meaningful, fun experiences. This led us to organise whānau activities like a noho marae, roasting marshmallows on our ātea, and even a movie night at the pā.

Our goal was to ensure that tamariki and whānau understood the marae as more than just a place for tangihanga, pōhiri and kaupapa, but also as a space for joy, connection, and creating lasting memories. We wanted to change the narrative and show that the marae is where whānau can come together for great moments too.

Hei kupu whakakapi, i ngā kupu whakahirahira a tō tātou tūpuna, Te Roro o te Rangi, ko koutou te taikākā o tō tātou hapū, ahakoā te ruia o te taitea, e tū kaha tonu ana koutou, e tiaki ana i ngā kōrero tuku iho, kia ora tonu ai mō ngā reanga e whai ake nei.

We extend a huge thank you to all the marae who generously lent us gazebos and marquees, providing essential cover for our backstage and shade for our marae ātea. We also want to acknowledge Te Taumata o Ngāti Whakaue for the use of their vans and the staff who graciously shuttled whānau to and from Te Ngae Shopping Centre.

A big thank you to our kaikōrero for the day, Tamati Coffey and Anipātene Biddle, who did an exceptional job keeping the crowd engaged and entertained throughout the event.

A big mihi goes to all the vendors who created a vibrant market and stall area, ensuring everyone was catered too and adding a beautiful atmosphere to the day. Special thanks also to local Gecko Productions, Moana, and her team for their live-stream support and organisation.

As Matthew Heke expressed, this event was a true representation of kotahitanga, whānau coming together in unity for a great celebration. Apologies if I have missed mentioning anyone specifically; know that every single person played a role in contributing to the success of this event, and for that, we extend our heartfelt thanks. But whānau, together, we can be proud of the decisions we've made to build strong bonds and create lasting connections.

As we look ahead to Whakaue Whakanuia 2026, we do so with the hope and excitement of hosting it at a new venue.

Let's continue to grow and celebrate as uri of Whakaue, united in our journey forward.
Kia kaha, kia māia, kia manawanui!
